Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a god-send to weak, sickly, rundown or old people. Try them. 50¢ at all druggists.

MERIT SYSTEM ON BURLINGTON; MEN STAND OR FALL ON RECORDS

The management of the Burlington road has ceased the practice of suspending operating employees for infraction of the rules upon the ground that punishment by this method is an ineffectual means of discipline. Instead of punishment the company has inaugurated a comprehensive system of records which are at all times accessible to the men and from which promotions and dismissals from the service will be made.

The time, however, when an engine man or a trainman is called "on the carpet" and lectured and then laid off for non-observance of the rules has passed with the Burlington, whose officials believe that it should end on all railroads. The men know that everything they do in the way of perfect service means another step toward promotion and every infraction of the rules or every lapse of duty means a step towards dismissal from the service, from which there can be no appeal and no relenting on the part of the management.

In connection with the new system of discipline, drunkenness, disloyalty and insubordination are given as cause for immediate dismissal from which there will be no appeal.

SWITCH SHANTY SECRETS.

J. O'Neill has come down to the Meadow city from Raton and gone to work as supplyman here.

Arthur Havens, a car repairer at Lamy, has been visiting this city on matters of a personal nature.

The railroad pay checks never fail to arrive on the 15th of the month and tomorrow will be May 15th, both by the clock and the almanac.

N. C. Smith, the local storekeeper, has finished the big job of taking his annual inventory and now he is giving the glad hand to everybody.

Wilbur L. Clark has resigned as maintenance clerk in the division superintendent's office in San Marcel to accept a better position at Needles, Cal. Mr. Clark was in Las Vegas yesterday, bidding adieu to friends before leaving for his new field of duty and opportunity.

Conductor J. A. Quigley is in charge of a work train, the employees on which have completed ditching out the cuts on Glorieta mountain and are now coming this way out of Rowe.

The water was let out of the big tank at the local shops, sixty feet high, yesterday afternoon, causing a roar not unlike that of a cataract. It was done for the purpose of making needed repairs to the tank.

News has reached here that George Siemantel, who was transferred to Clovis as roundhouse foreman, has gone up a notch, having been promoted to be general foreman of the Santa Fe shops at Amarillo, Texas.

From 10 o'clock yesterday morning till 5 o'clock last evening, seven freight trains went west through Las Vegas, consisting in their entirety of an even 98 cars. This would seem to be going some, these dull times.

H. C. Short, a general traveling auditor for the Santa Fe, who sticks as closely to his friends as the bark on a tree, finished checking up the local station last evening and left for the lower country this afternoon.

Engineer Lee Hill, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism since he was transferred to the cutoff, was returned to Raton and sent to the Santa Fe hospital at La Junta. Fireman John Britz accompanied Mr. Hill.

Worthy of a place on a library table is "A Glimpse of Utah," a beautifully illustrated pamphlet, historical and descriptive of a land that was old when the west was new, now being distributed by the passenger department of the Denver & Rio Grande.

A carload of logs standing on the Santa Fe tracks beneath the Coal avenue viaduct in Albuquerque caught fire in some manner early Wednesday afternoon and the Santa Fe and both city fire departments responded to the alarm.

When the fire had been extinguished, two box cars in addition to the load of logs, had been badly damaged and the viaduct narrowly escaped being burned.

In future the resident or tourist who contemplates a trip to Mexico from El Paso and wishes to obtain train schedules and other information which will be useful on such a journey, should not ask for a Mexican Central folder, as has been the custom for many years, but must inquire for a folder of the National Lines of Mexico, the literature of the merger having just been put into circulation to succeed that of the individual roads.

Practically all of the Central Branch right of way from Osborne to Stockton, Kansas, has been plowed up and is to be sown to alfalfa. Paul Gentine, division engineer, conceived the idea that alfalfa along the track would look much better than weeds, so he leased the land to farmers for $1 per acre for five years, they to sow the alfalfa. Some of them will sow alfalfa this spring, while others will get the land ready and seed it next fall.

Albert Lee, a negro who rode into Raton, Tuesday morning by way of blind baggage was run down about 7 o'clock by engine No. 926 as it was backing out of the round house into the yards and cut off his right foot above the ankle. Lee gave as his home Greenville, Illinois, and said he had been working as a hostler in California for the past nine years with the prominent horseman W. B. Jennings, of Los Angeles, and this spring Mr. Jennings sold off his string of horses and threw him out of work.

Carlos Noyer, a graduate of the University of New Mexico, was arrested at Albuquerque on information from Socorro that he had appropriated a buggy and team, the property of a Socorro livery stable.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this Liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this Liniment. For sale by all dealers.
